

Obituary

Died: Saturday, March 4, 2017

Brown Brian William (Mason)

Born January 24, 1957

Passed away at home on March 4, 2017 in his wife's arms.

His guarding angel Gabriel finally came and took him home to our Heavenly Father, after a long battle with heart disease.

He was predeceased by his loving mother Irene (Murphy)

Brown and his father William (Bill) Brown, head of the Long Shoreman's Union, Hamilton, North-End.

Stepdad Harry Edward Mason.

He will miss his many friends, His buddies from Ball Packaging, Ganor of Evergreen Landscaping, Dave Pickett, John Call, Dave Putman, Sandro, Jeff, Serge Singh his best mentor and friend, Dasher, Bob Latzer his bestest drummer, Brothers, Doug Middleton, Charlie Carnuba & family and Dave Battah

His second mom Agnes Middleton, and all his aunts and uncles he grew up with on the North end, Cindy Palmer, Cheryl Middleton.

He will be missed by his cousins, nieces and families, his five sister-in-laws; Bonnie, Susan, Yvonne, Deborah, and Shelly and his brother-in-laws; George and Paul out West. As his wife Evelyn, I kept my commitment to let him pass here on the Manitoulin Island at home. He passed a contended follower of Jesus Christ. I will miss our long discussions, reminiscing of days gone by and a very easy sit by a bonfire.

You're in my heart, you're in my soul. EVELYN

(gabesgal@me.com)

Peace be with you always.

Service Summary

Funeral Service

Location: - Not available -