David was born and raised in the north and went to Laurentian University.

David used his entrepreneurial spirit and his business acumen to succeed in his career.

David noticed when others needed assistance and stepped in to do what he could.

He lived life to the fullest and loved to be on the water, especially cruising in the North Channel.

Travels in Europe and life in retirement on Manitoulin and in Florida, afforded David and Dora with many wonderful times with family, friends and acquaintances.

David was well known for his huge sense of humour with a huge laugh to go with it and leaves behind a void to all who knew him.

Due to the virus situation, a private gathering will take place at Island Funeral Home. However, a memorial will be planned at a later date.

Don't grieve for me, for now I'm free.

I'm following the path, God laid for me.
I took His hand when I heard Him call,
I turned my back and left it all.
I could not stay another day
To laugh, to love,
to work, or to play.
Tasks left undone
must stay that way.
I found that place
at close of the day.
If my parting has left a void
Then fill it with remembered joy.
A friendship shared, laugh, a kiss
Ah yes, these things I too will miss.
Be not burdened with times of sorrow
I wish you the sunshine of tomorrow,
My life's been full, I savored much,
Good friends, good times, a loved ones touch.
Perhaps my time seems all too brief,
Don't lengthen it now with undue grief.
Lift up your heart and share with me,
God wanted me now.
He set me free
