June 15, 1917 - August 29, 2020

Lottie passed away peacefully at the Extendicare Faclonbridge in Sudbury on Saturday at the age of 103.

Beloved wife of the late Thomas Marshall Nighswander.
Daughter of the late William and Mary Smith.

Loving mother of Mary (Stewart) Spry and Brenda (Grenville) Green.

Cherished grandma of Bradley (Lise) Spry,
Kelly (Jamie) Proulx, Kimberley Green and Stephanie (Greg) Thureson.

Special great grandma of Kori (Eric),
Kodi,
Lyndsey (Tyler),
Soren, Rowen and great great grandma to Aubrey.

Doting step great grandma to Jodi (Dawson),
Kelsey (Zac),
Cody (Stephanie), Samantha and great great grandma of Logan,
Liam,
Sophie, Paisley and Easton.

Predeceased by her 10 siblings and their spouses.

Lottie was an independent lady who enjoyed tending to her flower beds until she was 92 and her vegetable garden until she was 94.

She was blessed to be able to drive until the young age of 95 and stay in her own home until she was 97.

When Lottie was young she was a private pastry chef for a doctor and his family which was something most people wouldn't have got the opportunity to do.

She was a hardworking homemaker who spent her time
